KU'DAMM 101

HOTEL DE ROME

KU'DAMM 101

If you come to Berlin for business the Ku'damm 101 is a great choice since it's only a ten minute ride away from the fair grounds. The hotel features a light, modern interior with a sleek bar and rooms that are decked out in the tones from the Color Keyboards founded by maître Le Cobursier himself. The grey linoleum floors are a bit of a downer for they are not adding much to the cosiness of the rooms. But you don't come to the Ku'damm 101 to mope around your room, rather to hit the spa area that boasts an aromatic steam bath heated benches and eastern treatments like shiatsu and gua sha, whatever that is. PARK PLAZA WALLSTREET

Close to the Spree river the hotel is situated in one of the oldest areas of historic Berlin. It is integrated into the Wallhöfe building, which has a listed façade and was built in 1910. The interior is inspired by a New York wallstreet theme that results in quirky customized dollar bill carpets and stock market details. Bright touches of colours are the name of the game here successfully distracting every business traveller from whatever dull daily activities. There is a private in-house cinema too for those who can't stand the crowd. WALLSTR. 23-24, MITTE, TEL. +49 (0)30 8471170, WWW.PARKPLAZA.COM
